USS Indianapolis Legacy Org 3-Minute Update: President's Day Edition

Hello again, Indy family!

As we celebrate Presidents Day, let us remember that the story of USS Indianapolis (CA-35) spanned thirteen American presidents—from FDR, who chose Indy as his ship of state, to George W. Bush, on whose watch Captain McVay's exoneration was finally entered into his service record.

And now, here's what's happening...

Comeback Kid: Oldest Living Indy Survivor Back in Action

I am delighted to report that after a very serious health incident, Indy's oldest living Survivor is doing great. Cleatus Lebow, who is 98 years old, is transitioning from a long hospital stay to a VA retirement home in Amarillo, Texas. The Lebow Family shared a couple of photos of Cleatus reading the huge stack of get-well cards he received, and I have attached them here. Thank you all for your tremendous support! And go, Cleatus, go!

Detectives Wanted

We have 319 mysteries to solve, and we need your help! Legacy's Project 888 is recruiting detectives to help hunt down a photo of every Indy crewmember who was lost-at-sea or killed-in-action in 1945. There are 319 photos still missing. You can help by searching for lost crewmembers from your home state. (One successful search has already proved the saying: "Most people live within 15 miles of where they were born.") With today's technology, plus volunteers willing to put "boots on the ground" in local archives, finding a photo of every single man is possible. To get started, just click on this list of missing photos, which is organized by state, and "adopt" one or more crewmembers from your state. (The document may open in a new tab in your browser, otherwise, look for it in your downloads folder.)

We owe it to these heroes to include their photos in Legacy publications. To send photos or for more information, please contact Carl Fahnestock (thefahns@gmail.com) or Marilyn Henry (bmcp56@att.net).

Flags Flying

With the sad passing of Mr. Granville Crane, Machinist's Mate 2, at the age of 95, the flag committee was kept busy last month. Lance Corporal Alden Johnson, USMC, helped to honor Granville by participating in the traditional flag ceremony. Lance Corporal Johnson, an Indianapolis local, earned a Purple Heart during his service in Helmand Province, Afghanistan, in 2011. The flag he helped fly and fold was presented to Granville's family. Local volunteers are always welcomed and appreciated! In January, the Flag Committee also received a lost-at-sea flag request. A flag will be flown and folded at the Indiana War Memorial in honor of William Perrin Hambo, Photographer's Mate 3.

Wondery Releases a New Podcast About Indy!

Wondery, a leading podcast network, has released its newest season of Against the Odds. The topic? CA-35! The five-episode season, USS Indianapolis: Disaster at Sea, tells the story of the Indy sinking and rescue. Episode 5 features an interview with our own Sara Vladic, who served as a story/script consultant for the season. Here's a

Important Legacy Vote

Attention Legacy Members: The Bylaws Committee and Board have approved language for a potential change to our bylaws. This change clarifies the future frequency and location of USS Indianapolis in-person reunions. According to our charter, members must vote on all bylaws changes. That means it's now up to you! Every current, dues-paid Legacy member will receive a ballot via Survey Monkey in order to vote on this important change. Please keep an eye on your inbox for the ballot. Deadline to vote is Monday, February 28.

Fredericksburg: Fun for the Whole Family

A unique, regional opportunity awaits the family and friends of USS Indianapolis (CA-35) in Fredericksburg, Texas, May 17-20, 2022. This will be our first in-person gathering since the onset of COVID-19, and the only official reunion this year. Join old friends and meet new members of the "Indy family" who may be coming to their first reunion. Thanks to the National Museum of the Pacific War, you can discover new insights about Indy's story. Special offerings include the viewing of rare USS Indy archives, self-guided and docent-led tours of the world-renowned museum, speaker programs, a live action reenactment of the Battle of Okinawa, a fun-filled banquet by one of Texas Monthly Magazine's "Top 50 BBQs", and more, all in charming Fredericksburg. Make it a mini-family reunion – there's fun for the whole family. Affordable and convenient hotels are being held for our group for a limited time with generous 48-hour cancellation policies. Don't delay – reserve your spot!

Be sure to book your hotel room now at either the Inn on Barons Creek or the Fredericksburg Inn & Suites before these hotels take the "hold" off Indy's rooms and make them available to the general public. You do not have to pay now. But you should definitely reserve your room now. Not only is Fredericksburg a high-demand destination city, but there is also a lot of pent-up demand due to COVID. As restrictions lift, people are catching up on vacations and events they've had to delay for the past two years. That means hotel rooms in the entire city will be going fast, especially for the gorgeous month of May. Act now, before these hotels open their reservations to the rest of the public! It only takes a phone call. Everything you need to know is included in this reunion-info link: <https://www.ussindianapolis.com/2022-reunion>.

USS Indianapolis/Gwinn "Angel" Scholarship

Attention Students: The legacy you share with USS Indianapolis (CA-35) can help you earn money for college! Your family connection to Indy's story can help build your future. Even if you have never knew the men who served, you can learn about the ship's story. Applications are being accepted now through March 31, 2022. To be eligible, applicants must: be a descendant of a survivor, lost-at-sea crewmember, rescue crewmember, or Honorary Survivor; attend or plan to attend an accredited college in Fall 2022; be of academic good standing; and not have been a previous recipient of an Angel Scholarship award. Apply directly at:

<https://gtrcf.academicworks.com/opportunities/1123>.

More information about the program can be found at:

<https://www.ussindianapolis.com/gwinn-scholarship>

Still Growing

The Legacy Organization would like to welcome new member Anna (Runck) Knipfer and new student member Lilah McCall!

Here are our membership numbers for January 2022:

Lifetime	52
General	90
Students	17
Total	159

The membership committee will be available to welcome all at the upcoming reunion in Fredericksburg. We will have a table where you can stop by and visit, join Legacy, or renew your membership for 2022-2023.

Don't forget the Legacy Member (+ One) Cocktail Party is for all current 2021-2022 members. If you are not sure if you are a current member, please reach out to Julie Rutherford Haas at: julie.haas@bruceoakley.com

Nominating Committee

The terms of two current Legacy board members, Chair (Lynn Vincent) and Treasurer (Bonnie Buckett) will be ending this July. The Nominating Committee is now initiating the process for defining the qualities and talents needed to fill these roles. This information will be used to guide our search among members for candidate recommendations to the Board in June. Input from members is always welcome! Please contact Nominating Committee chair Doug Sinclair: doug.sinclair@comcast.net

Student Members are Telling "Your Story"

Students and mentors are working to finish up their "Your Story" story project. At last count, the students had collected more than 250 pages of stories about how families, friends, and supporters of Indianapolis are connected to Indy. We would like to thank all of you who submitted your story and took the time to make this project a wonderful learning experience for our student members. We invite you to stop by our table at the reunion in Fredericksburg, Texas, to see what our students have accomplished.

Did you know that more than 80 of the crew were either born in Texas or made their home in the Lone Star State? Founding student member Shea Groves from Mascoutah, Illinois, is currently working on a very special item that will honor these Lone Star heroes. This item will be on display in Fredericksburg and then auctioned off to raise funds, all of which will be used to continue to keep the Indy story alive.

That's it for the February 2022/President's Day Edition of the 3-Minute Update. See you next month!

Lynn 😊
